BANGALORE.

31st Aug. 1918

Your Highness,

There is not much to chronicle during the week. H.E. Lord Pentland's visit is now over & I believe he was satisfied with what we did for him.

The personal conditions are a little better - but want more rain yet.

The Hon'ble Mr Cobb left for Simla on the 29th inst - He did not say why he was going. We have given him a list of questions including the Cauvery case on which we are anxious to have an early decision.

The arrangements for the Durbar-

Convocation on the 19th Oct are proceeding satisfactorily.

We are delighted to hear that your Highness has consented to preside at the Joint Convocation of the Benares University if the date is suitably changed. It is likely that many leading Princes will be present on the occasion.

Everything is proceeding smoothly here and the public are following the news of your Highness's tour with much interest.

I am,

Your Highness's devoted & humble servant,
